NCCDPHP Program Integration Interactive Workspace Policy

Welcome to the National Center for Chronic Disease Prevention and Health Promotion (NCCDPHP) Program Integration Interactive Workspace (we are calling our blog an “interactive workspace”). This is one of the components of the chronic disease program Learning Community.

What is the purpose of this interactive workspace?

This interactive workspace is one of multiple communication channels available for CDC staff and external partners to participate in conversations, activities, and information exchange related to Program Integration.

It allows participants to:

- receive updates about integration activities from different sources
- learn from and contribute to discussions
- have a forum for joint problem-solving
- exchange information on topics relevant to program integration

Guidelines

- Show respect and consideration to the authors and others
- Share ideas, concerns, solutions relevant to the topic(s)
- Please refrain from the following comments, as they will not be posted:
 - Vulgar language, personal attacks of any kind or offensive terms that target specific individuals or groups
 - Off-topic comments, promotion of services or products
 - Copyright infringement
 - Personal identification or medical information about a third party, especially information restricted from release under the Privacy Act or the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act \(HIPAA\)

Comments will be monitored during regular business hours Monday through Friday; however, your comments are welcome any time – comments submitted after hours or on weekends will be read and posted as early as possible
